

K-love serves a very valuable place in our community. It is a station where it is safe for all members of a family to listen together and learn. There is not another station like it. It is in the communities best interest to keep it on the air, commerical free.